Information about working in Hessen

Licence as a Dental Doctor with a dental education from outside

Germany Approbation als Zahnärztin/Zahnarzt § 2 Zahnheilkundegesetz (ZHG) und Berufserlaubnis § 13 ZHG

Dear Sir or Madam,

Thank you for your interest to work as a dental practitioner in Hessen, Germany. Here are some information about the conditions and needs.

Working in Germany as a dental doctor requires a permanent licence (approbation) or a temporary restricted licence (Berufserlaubnis).

To start an application for licence you must need to meet the following basic prerequisites:

Completely finished dental education verified by an official diploma, an academic record with marks and grades and a licence to work as a dental doctor without restrictions in your country.

Adequate German language skills, documented with a B2-certificate solely from Goethe-Institute and a German dental language certificate C1.

Substantiation or confirmation that you want to work especially in Hessen, normally proved by an application for “Berufserlaubnis”, signed by you and the staff department from a dental doctor’s office.

Important information:

Each application for a licence will be verified individual and is a subject to charge.

The process begins, when the HLPUG is the competent authority for your application.

Within the process, there are other conditions to fulfil as health certificate, police clearance certificate, certificate of good standing, etc. For more information please have a look at our German information letter.
